Before arriving at Michigan State, Cathy George had already established herself as one of the more well-respected coaches in the sport. Her 13 years on the MSU sideline has seen the Spartans ascend to one of the elite programs in the country. With seven consecutive NCAA appearances under her belt (including three trips to the Sweet 16 and an NCAA Regional Final appearance in 2017), she has guided the Spartans to the most wins of any Michigan State head coach in program history.

More than just wins and losses, George has insisted on a level of accomplishments not only on the court, but in the classroom and community. George, her staff, and her players are mainstays in community outreach events, and can boast some of the most impressive academic accomplishments of any team at Michigan State. George's players include 72 Academic All-Big Ten selections, three Academic All-Americans, and 20 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars over 13 seasons.

Every season, George's teams have attracted rapidly growing crowds to Jenison Field House, ranking in the top-25 in Division I attendance in each of the last 20 years. The Spartans ranked eighth nationally in average attendance, (2,872), as 37,333 fans took in a volleyball match at Jenison Field House in 2015, the 11th highest total among Division I programs. The Spartans have set new attendance records in each of the last four seasons, with MSU setting a new single-game attendance mark at Jenison Field House in 2014, drawing 6,218 fans for an Oct. 3 match vs. archrival Michigan.

Under George's tutelage, her program's involvement in community activities has also helped grow MSU's fan base. The Spartans had 13 regular-season games at Jenison Field House in 2017, where the Spartans are routinely a top-10 ranked attendance draw. MSU had a pair of single-game crowds that ranked among the top 15 in program history, averaged a program-record 3,141 fans per match at home (eighth nationally) and its total attendance of 40,834 ranked 11th nationally - giving MSU its 23rd straight year of ranking in the top 25 of average attendance.

George currently boasts a career record of 621-398, and is 256-172 while at MSU. She ranks 19th among active coaches for total wins in NCAA Division I volleyball, and ranks among the top 80 coaches all-time with a career .609 winning percentage. On November 11, 2017, she became the winningest head coach in MSU history with her 251st victory as the head coach of the Spartans - surpassing Annelies Knoppers (250-197-18, 1974-84).

The head coach, with 13 years of tenure at Michigan State, has helped MSU to perhaps its longest stretch of sustained success. MSU's streak of seven consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances is the second-longest in school history and the third most active consecutive appearances in the Big Ten, behind Penn State and Nebraska. In addition, MSU, Nebraska, and Penn State are the only teams to finish .500 or better in Big Ten play in each of the last seven seasons (2011-17). MSU advanced to the NCAA Regional Final in 2017, falling to No. 1 Penn State in State College.

The accolades for her 2017 squad made the group one of the most decorated in program history, second to the 1995 Final Four squad. Going 24-9 overall and 14-6 in the Big Ten, MSU finished fourth in the grind of Conference play, and earned the fourth-most Conference wins in program history and the most since 1998. The trip to the NCAA Regional Final was MSU's first since 1996, and its final ranking of No. 8 in the final AVCA national poll was also the highest for the program since the 1996 season. The seven seniors in the Class of 2017 amassed 87 victories, the second-most for a senior class in George's tenure.

MSU had four players earn All-America honors, which included Second Team kudos for Alyssa Garvelink, becoming the fourth player in program history to make the first, second, or third team in multiple seasons in MSU history. Autumn Bailey completed her collegiate career with a Second Team honor after three Honorable Mention nods, while Rachel Minarick bookmarked her career with a second Honorable Mention Selection and Holly Toliver was an Honorable Mention pick for the first time in her career. Minarick also earned First Team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors - just the second player in program history to earn a place on the ultra-competitive First Team. Garvelink and Bailey (First Team), were joined by Minarick and Toliver (Honorable Mention) on the All-Big Ten team, MSU's most picks in a single season since 2000. Six players also earned Academic All-Big Ten honors, as the team upheld its impressive play on the court with a fall semester record 3.42 team GPA in the classroom - the highest team fall GPA in program history.

In 2016, MSU finished the season with a 25-9 record, recording the most regular-season victories (24) for a Spartan team since 1996. The 25 victories also tied the most under George at the helm. MSU was the overall No. 9 seed in the NCAA Tournament and hosted for the just the fifth time in school history and the first time since 2003. Alyssa Garvelink was named a First Team All-Big Ten selection and also a Second Team AVCA All-American, while Autumn Bailey was an Honorable Mention. In addition, Allyssah Fitterer earned her fourth consecutive All-Region honor, capturing the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award as well.

In 2015, the Spartans overcame a host of frustrating injuries to maintain their fifth consecutive season of .500 or better in the Big Ten, going 19-14 and 10-10 in Conference play. The Spartans faced a showdown with the nation's No. 1 team in the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season, and fell to Washington in Seattle, 3-1. George won her 200th match at Michigan State on Oct. 14, 2015, when the Spartans downed visiting Maryland at Jenison Field House.

Continuing MSU's history of exceptional success both on and off the court, senior Maggie Halloran earned the Big Ten Postgraduate Scholarship at the conclusion of the 2015-16 academic year—she was the top female GPA recipient at the Student-Athlete Support Services (SASS) Academic Gala and maintained a perfect 4.0 GPA over her four seasons.

The Spartans boasted three Honorable Mention All-America selections in 2014 (tying its program best), and pushed top overall seed Stanford before falling in four sets to the Cardinal in the NCAA Tournament. During the season, senior Kori Moster cemented her spot in Big Ten volleyball lore, finishing third all-time in Big Ten history in career digs.

The 2013 season was a banner year for the Spartans, who advanced to the Sweet 16 for the second consecutive season and boasted three All-America selections. MSU went 11-1 in the pre-Big Ten portion of its schedule, capturing the Spartan Invitational and Butler Invitational Tournament titles and defeating the NCAA runner-up in 2012, No. 12 Oregon. The team then started the Big Ten season 6-0 and was ranked as high as fifth in the country; the Spartans opened the conference slate with an upset of No. 1 Penn State (3-1) on its home court, and capped its 6-0 start with a 3-1 home win over then-No. 9 Nebraska. In the NCAA Tournament, MSU downed Ohio and host No. 17 Kentucky in the first weekend, but fell to No. 2 Penn State in the round of 16.

The individual accolades poured in for MSU over the course of the season. Junior libero Kori Moster earned her second straight Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honor, was an All-America selection, and was one of 12 players selected by USA Volleyball for the U.S. Collegiate National Team to tour China in June 2014. Lauren Wicinski completed her career with All-America honors for the fourth season in her career, and was a unanimous First Team All-Big Ten selection. Classmate Alexis Mathews earned her first-ever All-Big Ten accolades and was an honorable mention All-America pick, while earning a spot in the USA Volleyball training block in the spring of 2014. Meanwhile, co-captain Kristen Kelsay (now an assistant coach with the program) was an Academic All-America selection, captured the Gwendolyn Norrell Community Service & Leadership Award at the Student-Athlete Support Services Academic Gala for excelling in the field of community service and outreach, then won both the Chester Brewer Leadership Award as well as the Dr. James Feurig Achievement Award (honoring dedication, honesty, academic achievement, and perseverance), two of MSU's major athletic awards, at the end of the 2013-14 academic year. In addition, she was named the Detroit Athletic Club Female College

George and her team celebrate her 251st victory at Michigan State, making her the all-time winningest coach in MSU history.

The 2012 edition of the Spartans opened the NCAA Tournament with a 3-2 win over No. 18 San Diego and then upset defending national champion UCLA on its home floor, 3-1, in-route to the Sweet 16. The Spartans opened the season on a 12-match win streak that included four in-season tournament titles. George won her 500th match at Iowa, and the Spartans swept Michigan on its home floor. Kori Moster earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, and was Honorable Mention both in the Big Ten and on the AVCA All-America team. Junior outside hitter Lauren Wicinski earned First Team All-Big Ten and Second Team AVCA honors, the first time since 1995 that two Spartans were named AVCA All-Americans in the same season.

The Spartans were in the NCAA Tournament in 2011, the ninth trip for George and her fourth at the helm of MSU. Michigan State started the season with six straight wins and two tournament titles, Jenilee Rathje, one of the most decorated players in program history, was recognized as a third-team AVCA All-American and was a unanimous selection to the All-Big Ten First Team for the second straight season. Fellow senior Kyndra Abron was also named to the All-Big Ten team as an honorable mention and was named to the COBRA Magazine Midwest All-Region Team for along with Alexis Mathews.

The 2010 Spartans closed out the 2010 campaign by winning four of their final six matches, highlighted by an impressive 3-0 win over then-No. 19 Michigan on Senior Night at the Breslin Center, before a record-setting crowd of 6,824. As a result of the 3-0 win, MSU regained the "State Pride Flag" for the first time since 2006. Redshirt junior Jenilee Rathje became the 17th player in program history to amass 1,000-career kills as she earned unanimous first team All-Big Ten honors as well as being named an AVCA All-Mideast Region honorable mention selection. Kyndra Abron was named to the COBRA Magazine Midwest All-Region Team while freshman Alexis Mathews was an honorable mention selection.

In 2009, the Spartans won their first 12 matches of the season and made their third NCAA Tournament appearance over four seasons MSU posted upset wins over No. 12 Southern California and No. 12 Illinois in the Big Ten home opener. Kyndra Abron was an Honorable mention AVCA All-America.

In 2008, George brought the No. 7-ranked recruiting class onto campus, helping MSU compile a 15-16 overall record, despite playing five freshmen for most of the season. George spent the spring of 2008 coaching the USA A2 Red team to the USA Adult Open Championship. The USA A2 Red Team topped the University of Washington's Huskies VBC team, 3-1, in Atlanta. George's A2 Red Team took home the gold, while the Blue team finished with the bronze. This was George's second stint with USA Volleyball, after serving as an assistant coach for the US team at the 1999 World University Games.

George guided the Spartans to the NCAA Regional Semifinals and a fifth-place finish in the Big Ten in 2007, going 21-14 overall. The Spartans entered post-season play in consecutive seasons for the first time since 2002-03. Under George's guidance, senior Ashley Schatzle became the Spartans' seventh AVCA All-American.

In George's first year as head coach in 2005, MSU finished the season with a 12-18 record, with Katie Johnson earning All-Big Ten Honorable Mention honors. A year later, George guided MSU to the 2006 NCAA Tournament, leading the Spartan squad to a 19-12 overall record, including a 10-10 mark in Big Ten play. The Green and White made its first trip to post-season play since the 2003 campaign. Ashley Schatzle earned All-Big Ten honors while Katie Johnson repeated as an Honorable Mention All-Big Ten pick, and competed with the U.S. Women's National Volleyball A2 Program during the summer of 2007. Vanessa King garnered 2006 All-Big Ten Freshman Team accolades.

Prior to her arrival at Michigan State, George spent 11 years guiding the Western Michigan University program, where she compiled a 185-139 record. Taking over the reins at WMU prior to the 1994 season, George's Broncos qualified for eight consecutive MAC Tournaments beginning with the 1997 campaign, and her Bronco squad made back-to-back MAC Tournament title match appearances in 1999 and 2000, capturing the title in 2000. George reached the 300-win mark in 2000, and was named the MAC Coach of the Year that same season after guiding the Broncos to the MAC title and NCAA Tournament.

George's student-athletes at WMU earned all-conference and national honors while enjoying academic success. Sixteen players earned academic all-conference honors during her time at Western Michigan, while four players were named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District team. On the court, George recruited high-caliber student-athletes, as three WMU players trained with various U.S. national teams. In 1999, two players were honored with the chance to compete with the Pan Am Games Training Team, while another Bronco was selected to the 2001 U.S. National A2 team. Western Michigan's success under George led to increased attendance, as the Broncos led the MAC in total attendance in eight of her 11 seasons.

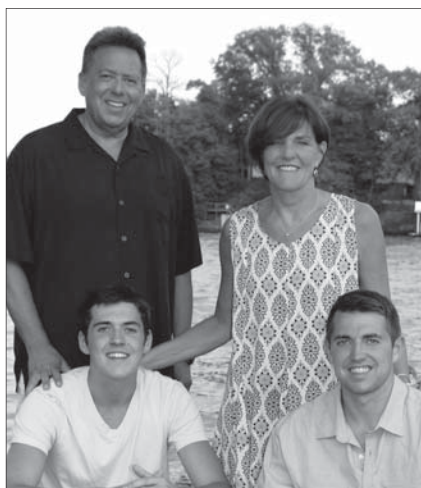

From 1989-93, George was the head coach at Texas-Arlington and led UTA to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Tournaments, with a school-record third-place national finish in 1989. With the Mavs, she became the first woman to coach in the NCAA Division I Final Four (1989) and she earned Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors three times (1989, 1990, '92) as she posted a record of 93-74 in her five seasons. George's teams won Southland Conference titles in 1989, 1990 and 1992, were 37-4 in conference play (.902), and finished with a 10-2 record in postseason competition during her tenure.

George got her start as a collegiate coach at North Dakota State in 1987-88, leading the Bison to an 87-11 (.888) record in her two seasons. In 1987, NDSU posted a 44-8 mark en route to a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Division II Championships, and went 43-3 in 1988, finishing third. She was named North Central Conference and regional Coach of the Year in both 1987 and 1988, as well as garnering NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year honors in 1988.

A 1985 graduate of Illinois State and four-year letterwinner in the volleyball program, George helped the Redbirds win three consecutive Missouri Valley Conference titles and NCAA Tournament appearances. A team captain and crafty outside attacker, she was a three-time All-MVC selection who earned all-region honors.

George, who earned her master's degree in education from Central Michigan in 1987, resides in Okemos, with her husband Jerry. The couple has two sons: T.J., (a Michigan State graduate), and Conner, who currently attends the University and is a member of the men's basketball program.

STATE PRIDE SERIES

Michigan State and Michigan share a long history of rivalries in both academics and athletics. Beginning in 1990, the two state of Michigan Big Ten institutions began a "State Pride" season series to celebrate the in-state rivalry. A state of Michigan flag bearing the motto "Tuebor" or "I will defend," serves as a symbol of the volleyball rivalry with the winner of the season's face-to-face matches retaining possession of the flag for a year. The flag flew over the State Capitol on Sept. 18, 1990. In addition to the State flag, each school's winning year is listed on its half of a special Michigan State-Michigan banner.

- The school that wins both matches will be declared the "State Pride" winner.
- If teams split the matches, the school that wins the greatest number of games will be declared the "State Pride" winner.
- If both teams have won the same number of games, the school with the most total points is the "State Pride" winner.

INTERIM MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

JOHN ENGLER

John Engler became interim president of Michigan State University on Feb. 5, 2018, following his appointment by the MSU Board of Trustees.

He was the 46th governor of the State of Michigan, serving three terms from 1991 to 2003. Before that Engler served 20 years in the Michigan Legislature, including seven years as state Senate majority leader. He was the youngest person ever elected to the Michigan House of Representatives.

Immediately prior to his MSU appointment, he led two of the most influential business associations in the country: the National Association of Manufacturers and Business Roundtable. Engler was president of Business Roundtable, an association of CEOs of the largest United States companies, from 2011 to 2017. From 2004 to 2010, Engler was president and CEO of the National Association of Manufacturers, the largest manufacturing association in the United States.

Engler joined Electronic Data Systems Corporation as an executive immediately after leaving state government. He has served on the boards of several corporations and organizations, currently including Universal Forest Products Inc. and K12 Inc. He chaired the National Governors Association and the State Science & Technology Institute and was named among Governing magazine's 2001 Public Officials of the Year.

He is a graduate of MSU with a bachelor of science degree in agricultural economics and earned a law degree from the Thomas M. Cooley Law School. He and his wife, Michelle, are parents of triplet daughters Margaret, Hannah and Madeleine. He was born in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, in 1948.

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

BILL BEEKMAN

Bill Beekman officially assumed the role of MSU's 19th athletics director on July 17, 2018. He was appointed interim athletic director by MSU interim president John Engler on Feb. 5 before taking over the position full time.

Beekman is responsible for oversight of MSU's 25 varsity sports teams as well as the care of more than 700 Spartan student-athletes. The position provides leadership in the areas of sports management, game operations, financial administration, personnel, fundraising, corporate interaction, facility management, marketing and communication.

"Leading the proud tradition of Spartan athletics is a great honor," Beekman said. "Since I stepped in as interim athletic director, my focus has been the health, safety and education of our student athletes. My job, and the job of our department, is to give them the tools and support they need to be successful on the field, successful in the classroom and, most importantly, successful in life after they leave MSU. Spartan athletics has a championship history, and we will continue to chase those championship dreams, doing so with integrity and always striving to improve."

An MSU alumnus, Beekman has served his alma mater since 1995, assuming his most recent role as vice president and secretary of the Board of Trustees in 2008. Previously, he served as executive director of the MSU Alumni Association, senior adviser to the provost and assistant dean for finance in the College of Human Medicine. Beekman led MSU's negotiations with the McLaren Health System to develop a hospital adjacent to campus and, with several colleagues, negotiated the expansion of the College of Human Medicine to Grand Rapids. He has taught health policy in the College of Law and the College of Human Medicine.

Beekman received his MBA from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University, his Juris Doctorate from Wayne State University Law School, and his undergraduate degree in justice, morality and constitutional democracy from James Madison College at MSU.

JENISON FIELD HOUSE

The Michigan State volleyball team has played nearly all of its home matches in historic Jenison Field House since 1993. Built in 1940, Jenison was the home of Spartan basketball until 1989 and is where Magic Johnson helped lead Michigan State to its first NCAA Championship in 1979.

Jenison, which is currently the home to the Spartan athletic department administrative offices as well as MSU volleyball, women's gymnastics, wrestling and men's and women's track & field, underwent extensive renovations in 2001. The volleyball facilities were improved to include a large new locker room, an expanded training room, a larger weight room and an improved equipment room. The building also houses locker rooms for baseball, women's rowing, soccer and softball.

For volleyball, the court runs north-south in the historic field house, and accommodates 4,900 fans in its courtside, reserved (chairback) and general-admission (bleacher) seating. Prior to the start of the 2011 season, MSU renovated Jenison Field House by installing retractable bleachers around the entire floor, featuring chair-back seating on the east and west ends. Jenison also received facelift with and new banners in the rafters and new lights. In addition, a state-of-the-art video board was installed on the north end of the building, allowing for instant highlights and pre-match announcements for all Jenison events. The sound system in Jenison received updated equipment to better serve the teams which compete in the facility.

The most recent updates in the facility came in 2014, as the volleyball locker room was renovated with new lockers and a new projector for film study in the volleyball locker room. These upgrades were possible thanks to generous gifts of several donors.

For the first time since 2003, MSU hosted NCAA Tournament matches last December, welcoming Fairfield, Cleveland State, and Arizona to East Lansing for the first and second rounds of Tournament play. MSU also hosted NCAA tournament matches in 1995, 1996, 1998 and 2003. Jenison Field House features a wooden playing surface that saw its first action during the 2005 season.

The Spartan Side Out Club, the official booster club of Spartan volleyball, runs apparel sales at each home game to help raise funds for the MSU volleyball program. Kids Club members line the court on match day and provide support for the Spartans at Jenison.

MSU has annually broken attendance records over the last five seasons, but those attendance figures reached an all-time high in 2016. MSU's match vs. Michigan on Nov. 11 brought 6,838 fans into the arena. This was not only a facility record for volleyball, but also improved upon the program record of 6,824 that came to the Breslin Center to cheer on the volleyball team against Michigan in November of 2010. Last year's crowd vs. the Wolverines is believed to be the largest non-men's basketball crowd to take in a Spartan sporting event in Jenison Field House.

The 2017 season was also the 22nd consecutive season that Michigan State appeared in the top 25 nationally in attendance. MSU ranked ninth nationally in average attendance, welcoming an average of 3,141 fans per match, a school record for the second straight year. MSU's overall attendance of 53,895 fans over the course of the 2016 season shattered the previous record of 43,918, established in 2014.

The Spartans are anticipating another season of record attendance in 2017, as there has been an increase of 30% in season ticket sales from 2016, establishing another program record for season tickets sold for a season.

Fans will be treated to 13 regular-season home matches in 2017; In addition to the 10-game Big Ten home schedule that will bring Penn State, Indiana, Purdue, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Ohio State, Iowa, Rutgers, Michigan, and Illinois to Jenison Field House, MSU will once again host the Auto-Owners Insurance Spartan Invitational, (Sept. 14-15), which will bring Western Michigan, Albany, and UAB to town.

The volleyball locker room received updated lockers in the spring of 2014, and provides student-athletes with a place to watch game film, as well as prepare for practice and matches.

Several generous donors contributed to the locker room upgrades which were completed in the spring of 2014.
